I Samuel Barker
Wife-Mary Fithian or Fithian

I am quite sure that Samuel Barker was one of three brothers viz. Samuel, William and James Barker who came to America as single men shortly before the Revolutionary War. The tradition is that they were sons of a Quaker sea-captain who brought them from England and landed them on the island of Martha's Vineyard. They followed sea fishing and probably were fishermen in England. We soon find them in Connecticut and later at Southampton along Island. Samuel may have married here for the Fithian family were there at that time. Both families were soon in New Jersey and he may not have married before coming to New Jersey. Tradition in all branches of the family have it that Samuel served in the Revolutionary war and was discharged for disability and died soon afterwards. It seems no record can be found of his service but these records are far from complete and his dying so soon would bear any future record being made of his service. The fact that he had but one child would seem to confirm that he died young. He died about 1777. I have little record of the other two brothers but I am sure that they had descendants. The Fithians were also English.

I John Barker

Wife-Mary Chamberlain

John was born in New Jersey Feb. 28 1774. Mary was also born there Nov. 17, 1784. They were married before 1800 probably in New Jersey but if so her people moved with her to New York. They may have married in New York. Their home was probably in Oneida County. We know that they lived near Lake Seneca.

Lake Seneca and often fished in this lake. We also know that Mary had brothers living here. In March 1800 John and Mary and their four small children, one a babe in arms, left New York in a covered wagon bound for Perry Co., Ohio. They expected to reach Perry Co. in time to put out a crop but storms had blown so many trees across the primitive roads that they with help from other travelers had to clear their way and they did not reach Perry Co. until in July 1809. To have maintained a wife and four small children for so long a time on the road in so wild a country must have been a man's job and for her to have cared for them and keep them well shows that she was a resourceful mother. In Perry Co. they lived for a short while just out of Somerset to the south-west but he soon bought the Old Parker Farm that remained in the family almost continuously for more than a hundred years. This farm is about three miles west of Rehoboth, Ohio. John was a miller and bought this farm because there was a good sight for a water mill on it; and although he lived here until his death he never built a mill but farmed. A few years later he traded his land for land where McConnellsville now stands because there was a water mill on it but traded back before ever moving there. He built the main part of the house yet standing on this farm (1932). Also the barn and the fruit-house. Their original home here was a log house that stood just north of the present house. All their children except the four who came with them from New York were born here. John and Mary both died here. He on July 30 1853. She May 31, 1857. Two small white marble slabs stand at their graves in the cemetery at Rehoboth, Ohio. One reads "John Barker, Died July, 30 1853, Aged 79 yrs 5 mos. The other, Mary wife of John Barker Sr. Died May 31, 1857. Aged 72 yrs 6 mos 14 days. He was a man of good stature but Mary was a rather small woman.

Mary was the daughter of John and Sophia (Malford) Chamberlain. John is supposed to have moved from Connecticut to New Jersey about 1767, and was probably married in Connecticut. Besides Mary we know of a daughter Hannah who married and lived in Ashabula Co., Ohio, and three brothers Julius Ephraim and Louis Chamberlain. These three made a trip from New York by wagon to visit Mary a few years after she came there; bringing their guns and hunting coming and going.

I. SAMUEL BARKER. -Wife. MARY FITHIAN.

I am quite-sure that Samuel was one of three brothers who came from England as single men shortly before the Revolutionary War; for this story of our origin in America is told by all branches of the family, many of whom have been apart for years. This same tradition has it that Samuel served in the Revolutionary War and was discharged for "Disability" and died at home soon afterwards. My faith in this is not weakened by being unable to find any record of his service; for the Revolutionary War records are very incomplete. That he had but one child would tend to prove that he died young and his early death would have prevented him from making a later record of his service. Mary was probably a descendant of William Fithian who was a soldier in Cromwell's army, and fled to America when Charles II. took the throne. He landed at Boston, went from there to Lynn, Mass. thence to New Haven, Conn. thence to East Hampton L.I. where many records of his descendants may be found. He was born in Wales and died at East Hampton, Dec. 10, 1678. Mary Fithian and Samuel Barker were probably married in New Jersey as their only child was born there.

I. JOHN BARKER. - Wife. MARY CHAMBERLAIN

John was born in New Jersey, Feb. 28, 1774. She was also born there Nov. 17, 1784. They were married before 1800, probably in New Jersey, but if so her people moved with her to New York. They may have been married in New York. We know that they had brothers and sisters in New York. Their home there was probably in Oneida Co. They lived near Lake Seneca and often fished in this lake. In March 1809, John and Mary and their four small children, one a babe in arms left New York in a covered wagon bound for Perry Co., Ohio. They expected to reach Perry Co. in time to put in a crop, but storms had blown so many trees across the road through the forest that they and other travelers had to clear the road and they did not reach Perry Co. until in July, 1809. To have maintained a wife and four small children on the road in so wild a country for so long a time must have been a man's job and for a wife to care for these children and keep them well under such conditions shows that she was a resourceful mother. In Perry Co. they lived for a short time just out of Somerset to the southwest, but he soon bought the Old Barker Farm which remained in the family almost continually for more than 100 years. This farm is about three miles west of Rehobeth, Ohio. John was a miller and he selected this farm because there was a good location for a water mill on it and although he lived on this farm until his death he never built a mill or followed milling but followed farming. A few years after buying this land he traded it for land where McConnelville Ohio now stands because there was a water mill on it but he got sick of his bargain before he moved and traded back. He built the main part of the house yet standing on this Old Barker Farm (1939) as well as the barn and springhouse. Their original home here was a log house that stood just north of the house now standing. All their children except the four who came with them from New York, were born here. John and Mary both died here. He on July 30, 1853, and she May 31, 1857. Two small white marble slabs stand at their graves at Rehobeth, Ohio. One reads "John Barker D. Med. July, 30, 1853. Aged 79. Yrs. 5. Mo." The other "Mary Wife of John Barker. Sr. Died May 31, 1857. Aged 72 Yrs. 6 Mo. 14. Days." He was a man of good stature, but she was a rather small woman. Mary was the daughter of John and Sophia (Mulford) Chamberlain. He is thought to have moved from Connecticut to New Jersey about 1767, and was probably married in Connecticut. Besides Mary we know of a daughter, Hannah who married and lived in Ashtabula Co., Ohio, and three brothers, Julius, Ephraim, and Louis Chamberlain. A few years after Mary settled in Perry Co. these three brothers made a trip by wagon from New York to visit her. They brought guns and hunted as they traveled and returned the same way.

I. JOHN BARKER--1774-1853---MARY CHAMBERLAIN-1784-1857.

I. ELIZABETH (BARKER) RANDOLPH.

Husband- ICHABOD RANDOLPH.

She was born in New York, probably Oneida Co., Oct. 11, 1800. He was born in Cumberland Co., Pa., Feb. 13, 1789. It will be noted that Elizabeth's mother was not sixteen years of age when she gave birth to this first child. They were married in Perry Co., Ohio about 1821. She died July 19, 1837. A white marble slab stands at her grave at Rehobeth, Ohio. The inscription, "Elizabeth Consort of Ichabod Randolph who departed this life July 19, A.D. 1837. Aged 36 yrs. 9 mo. 8 days."--Ichabod is said to have served in the War of 1812 and his father, Joseph Randolph, served in the Revolutionary War. Ichabod's mother was Elizabeth North. Both the Randolphs and the Norths are descended from noted English families. The Randolph name was originally Fitz Randolph. Ichabod died Feb. 23, 1868. A tall, square, white, marble monument stands at his grave at Rehobeth, Ohio. The inscription, "Ichabod Randolph. Died, Feb. 23, 1868. Aged 69 yrs. 10 mos. 10 days."--He had a second wife who was Hannah Woodruff. She was a sister to David Woodruff who married Mary Barker, a sister to Ichabod's first wife. After Ichabod's death, Hannah and her two children and two step-children moved to Crawford Co., Ill. and settled about seven miles north-east of Oblong. It may be said to her honor that she was so good a step-mother that many did not know she was not the real mother to these step-children. She died Aug. 7, 1895, and a square, blue, marble monument stands at her grave in the Prairie Cemetery about six miles north-east of Oblong beside the M.E. church where she held her membership. She has descendants in Crawford Co., Ill. (1933).

I. MARY (RANDOLPH) ACHER.

Husband JACOB ACHER.

Mary died soon after her marriage and is buried at Rehobeth, Ohio. She has no descendants. Jacob afterwards married her sister Nancy for his second wife; and he later died in service in the Civil War.

2. JULIA ANN (RANDOLPH) SELLERS

Husband-ISAAC SELLERS.

Julia Ann was born in Perry Co., Ohio about 1825. She was Isaac's second wife. He had five children by a former marriage, one son and four daughters. Evaline the oldest of these married William Rinehart for his second wife; his first having been a sister to Paul Randolph. The Rineharts were a prominent family in Perry Co., Ohio.--Julia Ann was sick for a long time and Martha, the youngest of her step-children cared for her and the family. Julia Ann died Oct. 29, 1869, and is buried at Rehobeth, Ohio. A small, white, marble monument stands at her grave. Many years later Isaac went to McDonough Co., Ill. where some of his children were and died at Macomb, Ill. May 3, 1893, and is buried at Sciota, Ill. His daughter Martha, whose married name was James, and who nursed her Grandmother so faithfully is also buried at Sciota, Ill.

I. ISAAC ROSS SELLERS.

Wife-ALICE JOHNSON.

1859.
Ross was born in Perry Co., Ohio about a mile west of Rehobeth, Jan. 6, 1859. About 1873 he went to McDonough Co., Ill. A year or two later he went to Kansas and worked at the carpenter trade, mostly building elevators. After sev-

She was a first cousin to Josephine Headley, who married Creighton's nephew, Ocie Walters. The Headleys trace their ancestry back to New Jersey where some of them married into the Strait family; probably the same family into which so many of the Barkers married. They also married into the Chamberlain family, which is probably the same as Mary Chamberlain's people. Catharine died at their farm home about nine miles north-east of Oblong, Ill. Nov. 15, 1885, and is buried in the Prairie Cemetery by the church where they held their membership. The second marriage was Apr. 14, 1886. He died on the farm where he had lived since his first marriage in 1930, buried in the Prairie Cemetery beside his first wife. He was blind in his right eye, it having been pierced by a splinter while he was cutting kindling. Sarah was living with her children in 1931. She was the Daughter of Chauncy Dart.

He was born in New York, probably Onieda Co., Sept., 25, 1805, and she in Bedford Co., Pa. Nov., 9, 1807. Both were brought to Perry Co., Ohio by their parents; he in 1809, and she in 1812. They were married there about 1828, and lived on land adjoining the Old Barker farm to the west. There seems to be no pictures of Samuel in existence, but pictures of her show a fleshy woman with a kind motherly face. Those who remember her as children thought "Aunt Bet" as she was called, a wonderful aunt, one of those who usually had a big jar of cookies on hand. A Nephew Israel Strait, who often visited her as a child, writes the compiler "You sure had a good grandmother". Samuel died Nov., 9, 1870 and she July, 12, 1875. White marble slabs stand at their graves at Rehobeth, Ohio. The inscriptions reading "Samuel Barker died Nov., 9, 1870, Aged 65 yrs, 14 days. Elizabeth Barker died July, 12, 1875. Aged 67 yrs 8 mo, 3 days. The buildings where they lived are gone; the house burned about 1892 after it was in other hands and the barn about 1908. They were devout Methodists, and prayer meetings were often held at their home.

I. MARY (BARKER) RANDOLPH-PAUL RANDOLPH

Both were born in Perry Co., Ohio; she Feb., 17, 1829, and he Feb., 18, 1827. They were married in 1850, and lived on land adjoining her father's to the north. This land is yet in the hands of their children (1933). They were industrious, good managers, and economical, and left a good estate at their death. Both are buried at Rehobeth, Ohio, a tall, square, granite monument stands at their graves, the inscription reading "Paul Randolph-Born Feb., 17, 1829. Died Dec., 12, 1892. Barker Family

Elmer G. Barker, son of John W. and Ellen Barker, was born in Butler Township, Mercer County, Ohio, February 11, 1868, and departed this life at his late residence in the same township five miles south of Celina, Ohio, May 24, 1932, aged 64 years, 3 months and 13 days. He was united in marriage to Miss Effie R. Kindell, February 16, 1890. To this union were born seven children, six sons and one daughter, all of whom are still living. He was converted and baptized in 1882 during the pastorate of the late Rev. Thomas Coate and joined the United Brethern Church at what was then called the Burntwood Class on Montezuma Circuit. Here he held his membership with his wife and children until a few years ago, this society was disbanded, after which he and his wife united with the Evangelical Church at Celina, Ohio.

The revival meeting in which he was saved was held in the frame school house which for many years has been standing on the premises of the Uncle Ben Coate farm. This house is a sacred building to the writer and many others who were saved during this wonderful meeting. Some years ago, Mr. Barker took pictures of this old house, one of which he presented to the writer of this sketch.

As a Christian, Mr. Barker was true and faithful to the end. He was rooted and grounded in the faith. He thoroughly believed in the doctrine of the depravity of the human heart, the necessity of the blood atonement, spiritual regeneration and holiness of heart and life. He would not compromise with sin in any way. He brought up all his children around the old family altar and they will all testify today to its wholesome power and influence. To the credit of Mr. Barker and his good companion it may be said that their children are all in honor to them, all are saved and helping to make the world better. Brother Barker was a successful farmer, a splendid school teacher, a good business man in the affairs of the home, the church and the community, a good neighbor and a devoted father and companion. His was the first death in the family, but he lives in heaven and will continue to live in the hearts of his family and friends. Another grave to decorate next Monday. Goodby Elmer, we shall meet you again in the morning.

He leaves to mourn a loving wife, and the following children: Rev. Oscar L. Barker, pastor of the United Brethern Church, Manlius, Illinois; Eros V. Barker of Belview, Ohio; Orson E. Barker of Minerva, Ohio; Everett B. Barker of Gomer, Ohio; W. Frank Barker of Amsden, Ohio; Carl W. Barker of Oak Hill, Ohio; and Mrs. Flossie Beougher of Celina, Ohio, Route 7; Also foster daughter Miss Grace Grunden of Dayton, Ohio; one foster brother, Supt. R. E. Offenbauer of Lima, Ohio; 14 grandchildren; one sister, Miss Ida May Barker of the old Barker homestead, and many other relatives and friends. A large concourse of friends attended the funeral services conducted by the pastor of the Evangelical Church, Celina, Ohio assisted by the writer, Interment was at Swamp College Cemetry.

Thank you,
etc.,
Sept. 9, 46

In the past twenty years I have been collecting data on families in Crawford
Co. Ill from local histories, grave stone records, death notices, obituaries, manuscripts, birth, and death records and personal interviews.

On some of these families I have a good record dating back to their settlement here and give the connections of the different generations.
They are written out in long hand.

I am wondering if you could make use of some of the best of these records.

I am wanting to do something with them as I am too old to do much more work in them. Yes

Respectfully

Mr. H. C. Barker
Oblong, Illinois

Dear Mr. Barker:

Your record source material is quite in line with a special interest which we are developing slowly - namely, the accumulation of cemetery and vital records of Illinois counties; these in addition to diaries, journals, etc., which will become more available as time goes on and they take on significance as early Illinois antiquities.

It is thoughtful of you to think of our genealogical department as a permanent home for your records, and depending on their form and extent, they will be boxed or filed in vertical and made available at once to reader inquiry for material on the counties involved.

Material on early Illinois is especially valuable to us since this was the gateway to the later migration to the west, and many families of Virginia and Kentucky find a missing link through records such as those you have compiled.

We shall take excellent care of them, and you may be sure that when you have no further use for them they will save many readers hours in laborious research for many generations to come.

Very sincerely yours,

Genealogy and Local History
